

INWAC Membership Levels and Criteria

Program Integrator $2,500

Program Integrator members are vertically-integrated aerospace manufacturers with strong program management support on staff. These members lead and participate directly in INWAC’s collective business development efforts, including sales and marketing meetings and events e.g. aerospace trade shows. Companies must have an active presence within the INWAC service area and must be AS9100 certified.

	>50 Employees	$1,500
Manufacturer/Service Provider	1-50 Employees	$1,000

Manufacturer/Service Provider memberships are available to companies that are directly involved in the manufacture or production of aerospace parts, systems or components, or those that provide direct services to the aerospace industry e.g. coating & finishing. Manufacturers/Service Providers are eligible to participate directly in INWAC’s collective business development efforts, including sales and marketing meetings and events. Companies must have an active presence within the INWAC service area and must have obtained or be in the process of obtaining industry credentials e.g. AS9100, NADCAP.

Affiliate $500

Affiliate memberships are available to out-of-area aerospace manufacturers or service providers and companies or organizations that support the aerospace industry in our region. Affiliate members may attend INWAC meetings and events and serve on advisory boards, but do not specifically participate in INWAC collaborative sales and marketing meetings and events.

Examples: equipment suppliers, banks, colleges, economic development councils, government agencies

Individual $100

INWAC membership is available to professionals or students currently working in or pursuing careers in the aerospace industry in the INWAC service area. Individual members may attend INWAC general member/community meetings and events and serve on advisory boards.

Corporate Sponsorships Varies

Sponsorships are available to INWAC members and other companies that support INWAC’s mission. To learn more about available sponsorships, contact Staci Nelson at (509) 995-0716 or snelson@inwac.org.

INWAC’s service area extends from east of the Cascades in Washington State across the Idaho Panhandle as far east as Bozeman, Montana and from the Canadian border south to Oregon.
